MORE ABOUT THE PROJECT

THE PROJECT WAS BORN FROM THE OBSERVATION OF THE EUROPEAN CONTEXT AND THE WORRYING LEVELS OF YOUTH PARTICIPATION IN POLITICAL LIFE AND IN THE DEVELOPMENT PROCESSES OF POLITICAL DEBATE AND THE INTEGRATION OF EUROPEAN VALUES.

We aim to create spaces for discussion and individual and group growth that can give young people the necessary skills to critically analyze the present and plan, through discussion and dialogue, a better future than what currently exists. One of the fundamental objectives is to combat youth disinterest in political and social issues, encouraging:

WHAT TO BRING

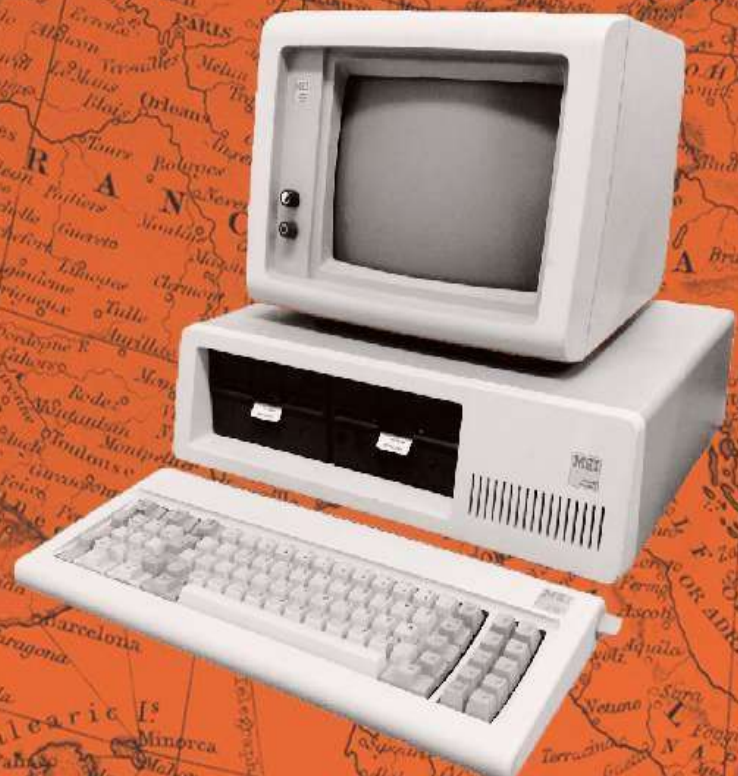

Bring light and comfortable clothes with you, the temperatures remain mild in the evening, so you can bring light jackets. Don't forget your swimsuit (the sea is just a few meters away, and it's beautiful in this period). Also bring towels and slippers. Remember to bring at least one laptop per national group.

WHAT TO PREPARE?

Before the exchange, participants will have to seek information on the active participation of young people in democratic life in their territories of reference. They will collect data through articles and institutional sites. This information will be used to compose a presentation that will be shown during the exchange and which will try to analyze the reasons that have generated the problem of the lack of youth representation and young people's distrust towards institutions and the possible solutions that can be implemented.

INTERCULTURAL NIGHTS

Bring with you something typical that represents your country and that you can present during the intercultural nights.

Food, drinks, dance, clothes and music can be used to stimulate the curiosity of the other participants and to introduce a little of your culture and traditions.
