

CAREER GUIDANCE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE - EXCHANGE OF EXPERIENCES

Start date: May 6, 2024

End date: May 12, 2024

POLAND

IDEA OF THE PROJECT

Start on a transformative training course designed for young individuals navigating career choices. "Career Compass" offers interactive modules, guided by industry experts, to foster self-awareness and goal-setting. Connect with peers from diverse backgrounds for a supportive exchange of experiences and insights. Gain practical skills in resume building, interview preparation, and communication through hands-on exercises. Join us on this empowering journey towards a bright and fulfilling future.

HOSTING ORGANIZATION

Headquarters of the Volunteer Labor Corps - governmental public sector organization

We are a labor market institution working for young people, especially those at risk of social exclusion, and unemployed individuals up to the age of 25. Our goal is to support young people by creating conditions for them to acquire education, employment, and proper social development. Participation in the OHP is voluntary and free. The basic standards of our activities include: reaching out to groups most in need of professional help through units located in smaller towns, a partnership approach (collaboration with educational and social organizations), individualized support, and learning in the work process.
